iThemba School Concept

Lufthansa Global Telesales (GTS), Cape Town in cooperation with Help Alliance - a non profit organization run by Lufthansa employees - firmly believes in providing needed education and nutrition to disadvantaged children in Cape Town, South Africa. Providing valuable resources such as teaching English to children at an early stage, equips and empowers them to further their education and build a brighter future.

With the launch of the iThemba School concept in 2006, GTS Cape Town makes an important stride towards developing and nurturing a future where education is a human right for all.

The new iThemba School Project

Based on the success of the first iThemba pre-primary school in Philippi, a second school was opened on 13 January 2010 in Vrygrond, Cape Town. In this community, local children numerous children lack necessary schooling facilities. The iThemba School Capricorn provides a structure where learning and understanding of the English language is facilitated in a creative and safe environment.

Our Philosophy

- ☀ To create and sustain a healthy and safe learning environment for children
- ☀ To help learners to reach the educational goals needed to enter Primary School
- ☀ To teach the basic foundation of English to the learners in a practical and interactive manner
- ☀ To create warm, friendly and nurturing surroundings for learners to develop emotionally and socially
- ☀ To provide a healthy, balanced nutritional program for learners

Be part of this exciting venture!
